PRELIMINARY APPLICATION FOR HOUSING OR RENTAL ASSISTANCE

INTRODUCTION

The Bennington Housing Authority manages public housing and administers rental assistance programs in the Town of Bennington and surrounding communities within a six-mile radius. Eligibility for these programs varies and is based on income, household composition and, for managed properties, suitability.

Because of limited vacancies and funding, most developments and programs have waiting lists. The length of waiting lists and the time before assistance can be provided varies from program to program. As a general rule, applications are considered in the order they are received. A residency preference is given households living in BHA's area of operation. At times, in order to meet income targeting requirements, BHA may choose only applicants within a certain income range. Additional information regarding waiting lists, income targeting and the residency preference will be provided upon request.

The BHA application process has two steps:

1. This Preliminary Application is used to determine initial program eligibility and to place you on the appropriate waiting lists.
2. When your name comes up on the waiting list, you will be asked to complete a Final Application, which gives us updated and more complete information. This information is used to determine final program eligibility, suitability and to calculate your portion of the rent. When you complete the Final Application, you will also be required to verify your citizenship status, sign a HUD consent form for Release of Information, a BHA release form for collection of information and a Consent for the Release of Criminal Record Information.

PLEASE SEE THE NEXT PAGE FOR IMPORTANT INSTRUCTIONS ON HOW TO COMPLETE THIS APPLICATION AND OTHER IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO PREVENT DELAYS IN THE ACCEPTANCE OF YOUR APPLICATION.

3. Social Security cards must be provided for all family members.

5. Optional – You have the right to include as part of your application the name, address, telephone number & other relevant information of a family member, friend or social, health, advocacy or other organization for the Housing Authority to contact to help resolve issues that may arise during tenancy or to assist in providing special care or service you may require as a tenant.

YOUR APPLICATION WILL BE RETURNED AND/OR DENIED IF ANY OF THE FOLLOWING APPLY:

- ILLEGIBLE APPLICATIONS: If the Bennington Housing Authority cannot read your application it will be returned to you to be completed again legibly.
- INCOMPLETE APPLICATIONS: The application will be returned to you with the areas marked for additional information. Your application will be considered only when all required information is provided.

If you have questions about other acceptable proof, please call the number listed on the front of the application.
- OVER-INCOME: You will be considered over-income if your household income is greater than the program requirements and therefore ineligible for further consideration. You may reapply if your income falls below the eligibility limit.
- MONEY OWED: If you have an outstanding debt with the Bennington Housing Authority, another public housing authority or any private landlord as a result of prior participation in any federal housing program, your application will be denied until we have documentation it is paid in full.

- CUSTODY OF DEPENDENTS: If you are including a dependent as part of your household who is a member of another household assisted by the Bennington Housing Authority, you are required to provide documentation showing you are the custodial parent/guardian at least 51% of the time. - ROOMMATES: In most cases, all members listed in the household composition must have a family relationship, such as a parent/child relationship, to be considered as a household. Roommates, such as a friend, cannot be considered part of your household. Under certain conditions, two unrelated disabled persons qualify as a family.
- UNDER 18 YEARS OF AGE: Minors are generally not eligible to submit applications for assistance and must wait until their 18th birthday.

Anyone who knowingly commits fraud by providing false statements or information with the intent to deceive in order to receive or continue to receive assistance under one of the programs administered by the Bennington Housing Authority will be subject to denial of his/her application or the termination of assistance. The Bennington Housing Authority is required by federal law to investigate all allegations of fraud. BHA is also required to report instances of fraud to state and federal authorities for further investigation and possible prosecution.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY AND NON-DISCRIMINATION STATEMENT

The Bennington Housing Authority (BHA) will comply with Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and Title VIII of the Civil Rights Act of 1968; Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973; Executive Order 11063; Fair Housing Amendments Act of 1988; The Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990; and with the laws of the State of Vermont prohibiting discrimination in public accommodations and in employment practices, and all related rules, regulations and requirements thereunder.

Further, in the selection of tenants, there will be no discrimination against persons otherwise eligible for admission because their income is derived in whole or in part from public assistance. BHA will not discriminate against selected tenants, and discrimination by one tenant against another is unacceptable and will not be condoned.

The information regarding race, national origin and sex designation solicited on this application is requested in order to assure the federal government that federal laws prohibiting discrimination against applicants on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, familial status, age, and handicap are complied with. REASONABLE ACCOMMODATION POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Bennington Housing Authority is committed to ensuring that its policies and procedures do not deny individuals with disabilities the opportunity to participate in, or benefit from BHA's programs, services and activities.

If a person with a disability requires an accommodation, BHA will provide the accommodation unless doing so will result in a fundamental alteration in the nature of the program or an undue financial and administrative burden.

A person with a disability may request a reasonable accommodation at any time during the application process, residency in housing owned by BHA, or participation in the Housing Choice Voucher program. Requests may be made orally or in writing.

Requests for reasonable accommodations relating to residency in housing owned or managed by BHA should be made to the Executive Director. Requests for reasonable accommodations related to participation in rental assistance programs should be made to the Executive Director.

The decision to approve or deny a request for a reasonable accommodation is made on a case-by-case basis and takes into consideration the disability, the needs of the individuals as well as the nature and requirements of the program or activity in which the individual seeks to participate.

Individuals requesting a reasonable accommodation will be provided with the "Request for Reasonable Accommodation" form. An alternative format will be provided upon request. Individuals may submit their request in writing, orally, or by any other equally effective means of communication.

BHA will request verification of the disability and the accommodation needed from a physician, licensed health professional, professional representing a social service agency or disability agency or clinic identified by the individual requesting the accommodation.

Upon receipt of the verification, BHA will promptly review the request. If additional information or documentation is required, BHA will notify the individual, in writing, of the need for additional information or documentation.

Upon the receipt of all required information and documentation, BHA will promptly advise the individual of the approval or denial of the request. If the request is denied, the individual will be provided information on any appeal rights in accordance with the applicable BHA Administrative Policy.

BHA will keep all information received involving domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking confidential, unless the victim requests or consents in writing to disclosure, the information is required in an eviction proceeding or disclosure is otherwise allowed by law. In addition, BHA will comply with the provisions of confidentiality laws and regulations that apply to BHA.

VAWA STATEMENT

The Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act of 2013 provides protections for victims of domestic violence.
